

Winter | 2011

Hans Peter Ring, CFO of air- and spacecraft manufacturer EADS, talks about the ramifications of the crisis.

Building offshore wind farms takes loads of money. But the banks are jittery.

- 8 COVER STORY
Brain Gain
Big data and cloud computing are game-changers. But they also carry risks.
- 14 XEROX INTERVIEW
Copious Change
Xerox is remaking itself from a copier maker to a services provider. CFO Luca Maestri discusses the challenges in breaking down mental barriers.
- 18 OP-ED ON OCCUPY WALL STREET
The Globalisation of Protest
Nobel laureate Joseph Stiglitz has talked to protesters around the world and found a common theme: indignation over rising global inequality.
- 20 EMERGING MARKETS INTERVIEW
Berating the Rating
Rating agencies have a “twisted perception of political risk”, says Alexey Kornya, CFO of Russian telecom operator MTS.
- 22 STRATEGIC ROLE OF THE CFO
The Performance Guardian
A new E&Y report shows how CFOs become true economic advisors to their companies.
- 24 COSTS OF COMPLIANCE
The Burden of Proof
High fines and tougher regulation force companies to double check their compliance.
- 26 EADS INTERVIEW
On a Flight to an Uncertain Future
From a weakening dollar to global spending cuts, EADS faces many daring challenges.
- 30 PROJECT FINANCE FOR WIND FARMS
The Big Lull
Lack of finance could put an early end to the grandiose plans of wind farm developers.
- 32 NOKIA'S STRATEGY DECONSTRUCTED
Coalition of the Weak
The alliance with Microsoft will not be enough to save the ailing telecoms giant.
- 34 GROWING CORPORATE LIQUIDITY
The Cash Conundrum
European companies have more cash than they need. But more spending is unlikely in the face of another economic downturn.
- 38 PROFILE OF CFO OF THE YEAR
Truly Busy
Evraz's Giacomo Baizini is FINANCE Emerging Europe's “CFO of the Year”.

40	UNPLEASANT TRUST REGULATION Under Surveillance	A forced divestment can be a nightmare. And now add an EU-appointed observer.
44	SMOOTHER SITE CLOSURES A Difficult Choice, Made Easier	Exclusive research by FINANCE sheds light on the biggest risks during a closure.
48	DANISH BANKING REGULATION An Experiment for Europe	The Danish approach to bank bail-outs is the most resolute one on the whole continent. A glance to the north is a glance to the future.
52	EVOLVING RISK MANAGEMENT In the Node	The growing complexity of global networks requires a new approach to risk.
54	RISING LABOUR COSTS Bye-bye China, Hello Europe	Surging wages in China are forcing CFOs to re-examine its attractiveness.
56	CREDIT SUPPLY IN EASTERN EUROPE Still Sheltered?	As yet, eastern Europe has avoided a credit crunch. But a storm is brewing that may yet wreak havoc on the region.
58	BEHAVIOURAL ECONOMICS Irrationality Reigns	Companies and consumers frequently make decisions on a whim. Investors like to leverage this fact, but it is of little use to CFOs.
60	DISPUTES WITH YOUR EMPLOYER Laborious Contracts	How CFOs can avoid the three main pitfalls in their employment contracts.
61	SYSTEMICALLY IMPORTANT BANKS Black List or A-List?	SIFI status hurts them, banks claim. The opposite is true.
62	HOW TO END THE EUROZONE CRISIS If You Want a Bazooka, Build One	If the non-eurozone countries want the crisis to end, then they will have pay up.
64	SUSTAINABILITY AND FINANCE The Green CFO	For companies that are really serious about sustainability, the CFO must become a key player.

62

The world economy will cave in if governments refuse to use their own money to stop the eurozone crisis.

3	Editorial
6	Hot Seat
11	Masthead
29	News Bites
41	Event Calendar
42	Ins & Outs
47	League Tables
66	Winner & Loser